

I would like to request that the FCC not implement the above proceeding. As it is written it would weaken the law already in place in Indiana.

I believe that the phone in the house is for my convenience to be used when I want. The Indiana law has completely eliminated unwanted calls from our house. We no longer need the caller ID service to avoid unwanted interruptions.

Please do not implement a law which would weaken the Indiana law.
Thank you.